BRILLIANT SCENE MARKS CLOSING OF ON TARIO JOCKEY CLUB'S MEETING.

Lightly Weighted Duke of Roanoke Wins Ontari Jockey Club Cup, with Sotemia Second Olambala Reserved for Dominion Handicap.

Toronto, Ont., October 1.—The meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club closed brilliantly today. The directors of the club provided a splendid program for the occasion, the features of which were the Ontario Jockey Club Handicap with $2,500 added, at two miles and a quarter; the Grey Stakes for two-year-olds, $1,500 added, at one mile; the Hendrie Steeplechase Handicap, $2,000 added, over the three-mile course, and the Stanley Produce Stakes, $1,500 added, at a mile and a quarter. The total value of the seven races was $11,225. In only one of the seven was the distance less than one mile, that being the opening dash, which was at three-quarters of a mile. Some of the fastest sprinters on the ground went to the post in this race. The winner turned up in August Belmont's Field Mouse, which beat the heavily backed favorite, Campeon, a length. The racing conditions were ideal, the weather being bright and clear and the track in excellent condition. The attendance, which was by far the plant. It was an enthusiastic gathering and the society element was well represented. The club-house enclosure was crowded and the public stands were unconfortably filled.

Interest in the afternoon's racing centered in the running of the Ontario Jockey Club Handicap. Olambala was withdrawn from this event, his owner, R. T. Wilson, Jr., having decided to reserve him for the $10,000 Dominion Handicap to be run on the opening day of the Niagara Jockey Club meeting at Fort Erie next Tuesday. The Seagram entry, Scismic, was the one most fancied, having a large local following, but all of the six starters found support. There was some delay at the post, When the break came, Garner rushed Duke of Roanoke to the front and, opening an easy lead, proceeded to rate along at an even pnee with Fair Annie, Sager and Sotemia in close pursuit. They ran in this order for a mile and a half. Rounding the far turn on the final lap both Sotemia and First Peep moved up with a rush and, entering the stretch. Sotemia looked a certain winner. When the final test c

J. Bryan purchased Merry Gift at private sale for $300 and B. C. Evans secured Lord Nelson for $250. A party of Montreal turf enthusiasts came down today to view the running of the Ontario Jockey Club Cup. Among them were Colin Campbell, C. C. McIntyre, Kenneth Dawes, E. R. Carrington and W. N. Stevenson.

Total848 LEXINGTON MEETING A FINANCIAL SUCCESS.

Much Encouragement Derived from the Outcome Fall Racing Venture in Blue Grass Region.

Lexington, Ky., October 1.—The predictions that were made for the Kentucky Association's fall meeting of nine days, which closed last Thursday, were fully borne out. It was a model meeting, particularly so in a racing sense. There were fifty-four races during the nine days and every one of them was keenly and earnestly contested from the rise of the barrier to the finish. There was no rough riding, no fouling and no scandal of any description. Likewise, the meeting was a financial success. The association's net profit was approximately $500 per day. Not as much, of course, as the stockholders in tracks where racing is now a thing of the past have raked off per duem to the destruction of the sport, and not as much as this association could use in lifting its debt, but sufficient to encourage them for the future.

sport, and not as much as this association could use in lifting its debt, but sufficient to encourage them for the future.

What was seen and what was done at this meeting will have a far-reaching effect for the uplift of the sport of racing. It has opened the eyes of many persons from New York and elsewhere who were never before in Kentucky to possibilities and to conditions of which they had little conception. Scores of visitors have departed fully convinced that the parl-mutuel system of betting and the government of racing by a state commission mean the salvation of the sport. The prediction that powerful influences will be at work in other states for the adoption of the Kentucky law and methods is justifiable.

"This meeting," said President D. Gray Falconer of the Kentucky Association, "has given us a great deal of satisfaction and encouragement, and I am quite sure that it will have good effect everywhere. The meeting was a financial and racing success. Perfect order prevailed at all times. There was no scandal of any kind connected with the racing, and it demonstrates that Lexington will support a fall meeting."

President Falconer said that during the winter

it demonstrates that Lexington will support a fair meeting." Palconer said that during the winter some needed improvements in the track and the buildings of the plant will be made and that the members of the association will bend their energies in the direction of a great meeting next spring.

ARGENTINE PUTS DUTY ON THOROUGHBREDS.

Lexington, Ky., October 1.—Owen Laughlin, who accompanied the James B. Haggin shipment of thoroughbreds to the Argentine Republic in June, returned to Lexington this week. "We made the voyage from New York to Buenos Ayres in thirty days," said Laughlin. "We started with 147 head on a tramp steamer and landed 146. The one we lost was the fourteen-year-old Goldfinch mare, Hemera (dam of Cinnabar and Ruby), belonging to John Mackey. Hemera became excited at something, jumped over the bar of her stall, lacerated herself badly and died tirtee days later. Altogether it was a good voyage and the majority of the horses landed in splendid shape and I suppose have been sold by this time, though some of the youngsters were sent out to a farm that I was told Mr. Haggin had leased. They are to be sold in October. It is a great country for racing, but from what I heard about the passage of a law putting a duty of 500 pesos on each thoroughbred coming into the country from the United States, I am afraid American exporters will not find the market profitable from now on. The peso is equivalent to ninety-seven cenis in American money. The lof that Maj, Thomas J. Carson took down had not arrived when I left Buenos Ayres. John Mackey went to England from Buenos Ayres to superintend the shipment of a big lot of Jersey cattle to Elmendorf Farm. Messrs. Swan, Stinnet and Haynes, who looked after the stallions, mares and yearlings, respectively, in the Haggin shipment, are now on the way back to Lexington and will arrive about October 15."

Mr. Haggin is now at Elmendorf, but he has had nothing to say on the subject of the sale of the horses in South America or whether he intends to send down another lot of mares during the winter as has been rumored.

AUTUMN STAKE RUNS FAR BACK.

Race to Be Run at Churchill Downs Tuesday Has History Rich in Interest.

Louisville, Ky., October I.—On Tuesday next the feature of the card at Churchill Downs will be the Autumn Stakes. It will be for two-year-olds, at three-quarters of a mile. Its renewal recalls the history of this stake in the early days of Louisville racing. It even goes back beyond the time of Churchill Downs, extending to the period when Woodlawn course, remembered today only by wartime turfmen, was in existence.

It was forty-one years ago that four remarkable two-year-olds met in a race which might be termed the inaugural Louisville Autumn Stakes. One of these was Enquirer, named by Gen. Abe Buford out of compliment to the Cincinnati Enquirer. The colt was the subject of the story written by Genral Buford in which the contention was made that a thoroughbred horse has a soul and that after death the horse has a place in heaven along with his master.

Another starter in the race was the famous Mage.

the thoroughbred horse has a soul and that after death the horse has a place in heaven along with his master.

Another starter in the race was the famous Maggie B. B. She was named for the daughter of Senator James B. Beek and was owned by Capt. James B. Clay, who was the affianced of Maggie B. Beck. iiis convivial habits caused the breaking off of the match, but General Clay cherished his sweetheart, so the racer, Maggie B. B., retained her name. Maggie B. B. will live for all time in the annals of the stud book, as she produced the great Iroquois, the only American-bred horse that ever won the Epsom Derby and the St. Leger. Next in that race was Lynchburg, named after the city in Virginia. He was owned by Capt. James Bacon of South Carolina, who married a belle of Lynchburg, so it was really in honor of his bride that Captain Bacon named his fleet racer. The last of this great quartet was the first Hamburg. He became noted in ambesquent years as the first three-year-old ever sold in America for as much as $10,000.

The race between these four horses was a battle royal down to the final stride. Enquirer won, closely pressed by Maggie B. B., while the judges could iardly separate Hamburg from Lynchburg, as they finished at the neck of Maggie B. B. The same horses ran several more races that fall in much the same fashion. Once Hamburg was the winner and again Maggie B. B., won. Before the season ended Lynchburg defeated the others. Hamburg and Lynchburg defeated the after the an early death while still on the turf, or they, perhaps, like Enquirer and Maggie B. B., might have become famous in the stud.

Passing to the two-year-old autumn racing at Churchill Downs and reviewing stake events in comparison with the stake race there next Tuesday. 1876 is a good year to analyze. In a stable now on the south side of the Downs is a trainer who figured in the two-year-old races of that fall. It is Peter Wimmer, who saddled that wonder. Belle Meade, in all her races. The Autumn Stakes on Tuesday is for two-year-old colts, filles and geldings and so was the final event won by Belle Meade in the Centennial year. She defeated that day the great colt, Eaden Baden, which, in another season, came on and won the Kentucky Derby. Then he went east and under the colors of William B. Astor won the Travers Stakes at Saratoga. Belle Meade sickened and died not long after her performances that fall. It is said that Peter Wimmer wept when the veterinarian told him the marvelous filly could not live, only last week Mr. Wimmer said at the Downs that for years he had seen come and go all of the stars of the American turf, but that in all of his experience he never had seen a two-year-old that was the equal of Belle Meade.

In 1877, when the Autumn Stakes was decided at the Downs that the Downs the Downs that the Downs that the Downs that the Downs the Downs the Downs the Downs that the Downs the Downs money-winning mare in America remains undisturbed.

The year 1883 was a remarkable one for Capt. William Cottrill. That season he had Buchanan, Mona and Matinee. Mona and Matinee were the first noted racers purchased by the late Capt. S. S. Brown. This pair introduced to the metropolitan turf J. W. Rogers. Captain Cottrill held on to Buchanan and he won the Kentucky Derby with him in 1884. He also essayed to win the Hindoo Stakes at Latonia, which afterward became the Latonia Derby. However, "Lucky" Baldwin came from California with the mare Fallen Leaf, and the terrific pace she set caused her own downfall as well as that of Buchanan. The race resulted in a dump, as that of Buchanan. The race resulted in a dump, as that of Buchanan won. The talent thought it was a fluke, but later racing that season proved Audrain's supremacy. When he raced at Washington Park, in Chicago, Audrain met defeat in a race against the mighty Freeland.

To go back to races similar to the Autumn Stakes

Addrain's supremacy. When he raced at Washington Park, in Chicago, Audrain met defeat in a race against the mighty Freeland.

To go back to races similar to the Autumn Stakes at the Downs, memories arise of Creedmore's victory over Vagrant, how McCloskey defeated Leonatus in the only race Leonatus ever lost, and Spokane showed for the first time the quality which enabled him in the following season to lower the colors of Proctor Knott, winner of the first Futurity. Spokane's was by far the most sensational Kentucky Derby ever run. The distance then was a mile and a half and the time, 2:34, still stands.

It is not out of place to forecast that the winner of the Autumn Stakes of 1910 probably will be the winter favorite for the Kentucky Derby of 1911.

Among the probable starters Tuesday will be Round to the World, Governor Gray, Love-Not, Ella Bryson, Little Father, Fairy Story, Miss Nett, Redwine, La U Mexican, Labold, Volthorpe, Forchead, Princess Industry, Jack Demman and Hesitate.

It is reported that in the Autumn Stakes Dave Nicol will have the mount on Governor Gray. Governor Gray's career has been somewhat marred by indifferent riders, Much that he has done has been upon his own courage and his own resources.

There are two more stake races on the card for horses of all ages, at three-quarters of a mile, on Tuesday, and the Frank Fehr Handicap, also for horses will be demonstrated in these sections have been pitted against each other it was to other foot, and the west is to be the scene of the struggle.

MEETING STARTS OFF WELL

FALL RACING BEGINS AT CHURCHILL DOWNS UNDER AUSPICIOUS CONDITIONS.

King's Daughter, Displaying a Return of Her Brilliant Form of Last Spring, Is Winner of the St. Leger Handicap, with Ocean Bound Second.

Louisville, Ky., October 1.—The New Louisville Jockey Club's nineteen-days fall session of racing began at Churchill Downs this afternoon under auspices most favorable for the sport and the success of the meeting. An estimated attendance of 8,000 witnessed the racing and voiced their appreciation of the splendid contests by cheering and applauding the winners in unstinted fashion. Speculation in the betting ring was of heavy proportions, the eastern contingent proving especially apt in getting the swing of the parl-mutuel and auction pool system of betting.

the betting ring was of heavy proportions, the eastern contingent proving especially apt in getting the swing of the pari-mutuel and auction pool system of betting.

The fine card that Secretary Lyman Davis arranged was productive of a brand of racing that would have reflected credit on any track in the country. The feature, the St. Leger Handicap, a renewal of an old-time fixture at a modified distance, engaged the flower of the horses in local training and the outcome was popular when T. C.
McDowell's King's Daughter showed her heels to her opponents for the entire trip and flashed by the finish the winner with a comfortable margin to spare, Ocean Bound, with a string of triumphs in the east, was most fancied by the smart set and the weight of their money made her the betting choice.
The local element remained loyal to the McDowell mare, overlooking her poor showing in the east and remembering only her splendid achievements in Kentucky last spring. They were not disappointed, for King's Daughter did exactly what was expected by her backers. She went into a long lead right after the rise of the barrier and, maintaining her advantage throughout, held Ocean Bound, her most formidable antagonist, safe for the entire distance.
Countless, after running sluggishly for three-quarters, made a determined bid, but suffered by being taken to the inner rail, where he was pocketed, unable to extricate himself until the last few strides, where he flashed into third position.

The McDowell colors were also carried to victory in the closing dash when Huck landed the purse in commanding fashion from The Peer and Frances Ray.

Capt. J. T. Williams' Governor Gray made ample amonds for her recent defeat at Lexington. The

LUCIEN APPLEBY SERIOUSLY ILL.

New York, October 1.—Lucien O. Appleby, well known on the turf, is seriously ill at his home in this city. Mr. Appleby has owned and raced many horses and has also been the financial backer of several leading bookmakers. He was always believed to be interested in the books made by Davy Johnson and Soi Lichtenstein and usually sat behind one or the other when the old betting rings were in operation. Two years ago Mr. Appleby's health became poor ad he retired from the wear and tear of turf speculation, but he continued to derive amusement from the conduct of a small stable. He is highly regarded by racing men and has a host of friends.

APPLYING FOR OAKLAND STALLS.

San Francisco, Cal., October 1.—Owners who spent the summer months racing their stables on the intermountain circuit are sending in their applications for stalls at Emeryville, and following the close of the Ogden meeting next month many shipments will be made to the coast. Secretary Treat of the New California Jockey Club has received a letter from W. Gabriel in which the latter said he would ship Lord of the Forest, Tillinghast, Hiacko and Gertie, J.-J. Conner has written for stalls for Hampass and Nebraska Lass.

OWNER AND JOCKEY DISCIPLINED.

Ogden. Utah, October 1.—Owner G. H. Missman and jockey S. Martin were suspended indefinitely today on account of the sudden and unnatural improvement in the running of the horse Yellow Foot, which won today in a fashion that was in marked contrast to his showing the previous time out.

LOUISVILLE AND FORT ERIE STAKE RACING.

Six stake races will be run in the course of the present week, the Autumn Stakes, South Louisville Handicap and Frank Fehr Handicap at Louisville and Grand Canadian Steeplechase at Fort Erie. In respect to value the Dominion Handicap is by far the most important, being of the guaranteed value of $10,000 and a dash of a mile and a quarter. Fitz Herbert is the top weight, but whether he is to be a starter or not is concealed in the variable mind of Sam Hildreth. He is not expected to run, but he may. Pinkola, Friend Harry. Donald Macdonald, Guy Fisher, Olambala, John Reardon, Jack Atkin and Polis are some of the best horses eligible, and it is quite probable that the value of the race will be mn on the first day of the Fort Erie meeting, Tuesday, October 4. The Iroquois Hotel Stakes, a handit punch of two-year-olds, at five and a half furlougs, will be run Thursday. It has Solid Comfort, Jim L., Dunc Campbell, Melton Street, Pharaoh, John Pendergrast, Edda, Bayerin, Clay, Moncreif, Darling and Baythorn in its entry list and should furnish a good race. The Grand Canadian Steeplechase has drawn most of the jumpers of the Canadian circuit and Steve Lane, Bergoo, Judge Cronin, The Shaugh-run, Thistledale, Ontario, Class Leader, Dr. Pillow and Expansionist are likely to be found among the starters.

At Louisville the Autunn Stakes, for two-year-fain.

The eleven yearlings that Henry McDaniel bought at the sales last week for R. L. AN OLD-TIMER AT WOODBINE.

One of the most interesting and most interested of yesterday's visitors was W. H. Williams, formerly sporting editor of The Globe. Mr. Williams had not seen racing at Woodbine since 1888, when Harry Cooper won the Queen's Plate two and twenty years ago, and though he found many old friends among yesterday's assemblage, he also missed the presence of many who had been prominent figures in his time. A score of years is a long period in a man's life, and the surroundings have radically clianged. On the day that Cooper won the Plate the present writer and Mr. Williams rode in a horse car to the Don, which then marked the city limits, and walked on to the Morin House, at the corner of Leslie street, now. "Doc." Simon's Duke of York Hotel. Here were stabled most of the few horses that were intended to race at Woodbine. The only stabling at the race track in "vose days was the "red barn." back of the clubhouse. After an inspection of the horses at the Morin House and Callender's and a good country dinner at the former place, the mext proceeding was to stroll on to Dick O'Leary's place at the corner of Queen street and Greenwoods avenue. Dick kept hotel, and trained and rode race horses, and stabled a few from out of town. On this occasion—he—had charge of Harry Cooper, ridden to victory by his son, Charlie.

Woodbine was reached an hour or so before racing began, and there was no hurry or bustle in those days. The Plate had $75 added, instead of the $4.000 given by the Ontario Jockey Club today, $50 going to second and $25 to third. Harry Cooper won easily from Evangeline, ridden by Allie Gates, and Cast Off, ridden by Charlie Butter, was third. Two races a day were ordinary tasks for horses then, and Evangeline ran again in the Helter Skelter Steeple-chase, the last race of the afternoon. Charlie Phalinad the mount, but the Long Taw mare, afterwards a most reliable performer, refused and unseated Phalir. Dr. Smith's Chandos won the hunters' flat race, ridden by Allie Loudon, now second and T. P. Phelan rode his own h

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Frank J. Gould's Pauverose finished second in the Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte of $5,000, distance three-quarters of a mile, at Maisons-Laffitte Friday. The Juarez Jockey Club has decided to race ou Sunday again the coming winter, as that day is a festive occasion in Mexico. Monday will be an off day as far as racing is concerned as it was last winter.

Jockey Tom Loates, who died at Brighton, Fig., Wednesday, left a fortune of about $1,125,000, largely the result of careful investments made by him under the guidance of Leopold de Rothschild, his chief employer.

Lackford, sire of the sensational filly, Round the World, is reported dead at Barney Schreiber's Woodlands Farm near St. Louis. Mr. Schreiber purchased the horse at the dispersal sale of McCirathiana Stud. He was a chestnut horse by Juggler—Cailleach, fooled in 1895 and was sent to this country by H. Eugene Leigh.

All Bettors: $2 X SPECIAL

FIRST PEEP, 8-1, WON was wired on Monday, September 26, to the large number of bettors who remitted for this Occasional as per my advertisement in Daily Racing Form of September 11 and 18. I filed this horse with Daily Racing Form the day before the race, which proves my reliability. All my Occasionals have been at long prices and have rewarded the bettors hand-somely. I back them all heavily myself, straight, place and show.

MY NEXT OCCASIONAL

FORT ERIE MEETING, OCTOBER 10,

and will be wired to all bettors on receipt of $2.00. As many bettors have asked me if I could send them a daily wire, I will do so, starting October 12, as then I will get a daily wire of one or two horses direct from the track from a trainer, a relative of mine, who will send them to me each morning, so I can back them myself. If you are not using my "Sure Shot Method"—you are "Cheating Yourself" out of a lot of money. It will snow you how to get back all you ever lost, and you can easily average from $100 to $300 a month with small capital. It took many months of hard study to perfect "My Method," and the result is that I am able to supply you with a "Practical System" that positively beats them at their own game—a System that you can depend upon making you a "Winner." The "Handbooks" cannot tell that you are using a System, for you positively name "One Horse Only," and you het the same amount every day (No Progression), and you "Win" nearly every bet you make and at good prices. I show you how to take $25 capital and beat any "Handbook" and 'T Guarantee it. Hundreds of "Level Headed" men in all parts of the "U. S." are playing My Method "Successfully," "Why not you?" You can easily prove My Method a "Winner" before you bet a dollar. It is not an experiment but an absolutely proven "Winner." This means "Money" to you and you can depend upon it, Send for My Method and beat them. It is "sold on honor" and is "Guaranteed" to be exactly as represented. Stop "Kicking" about "Losing" and get My Method and "Win," My "Complete Sure Shot Method" for "Handbook" and "Pool-room" and "Track" sent by return mail upon rec't of M. O. $5. Address

BIG KILLING

Fort Eric Tuesday in the third race at three-quarters of a mile for two-year-olds and upward. On this horse's past efforts, no one will give him a possible chance. Prepared by an A1 trainer and ridden by a first-class jockey, only an accident will prevent his winning at a good price. I want one or two good clever fellows to participate. No pikers. Call in person Monday or Tuesday morning between 10 and 12.
